Exchange Students

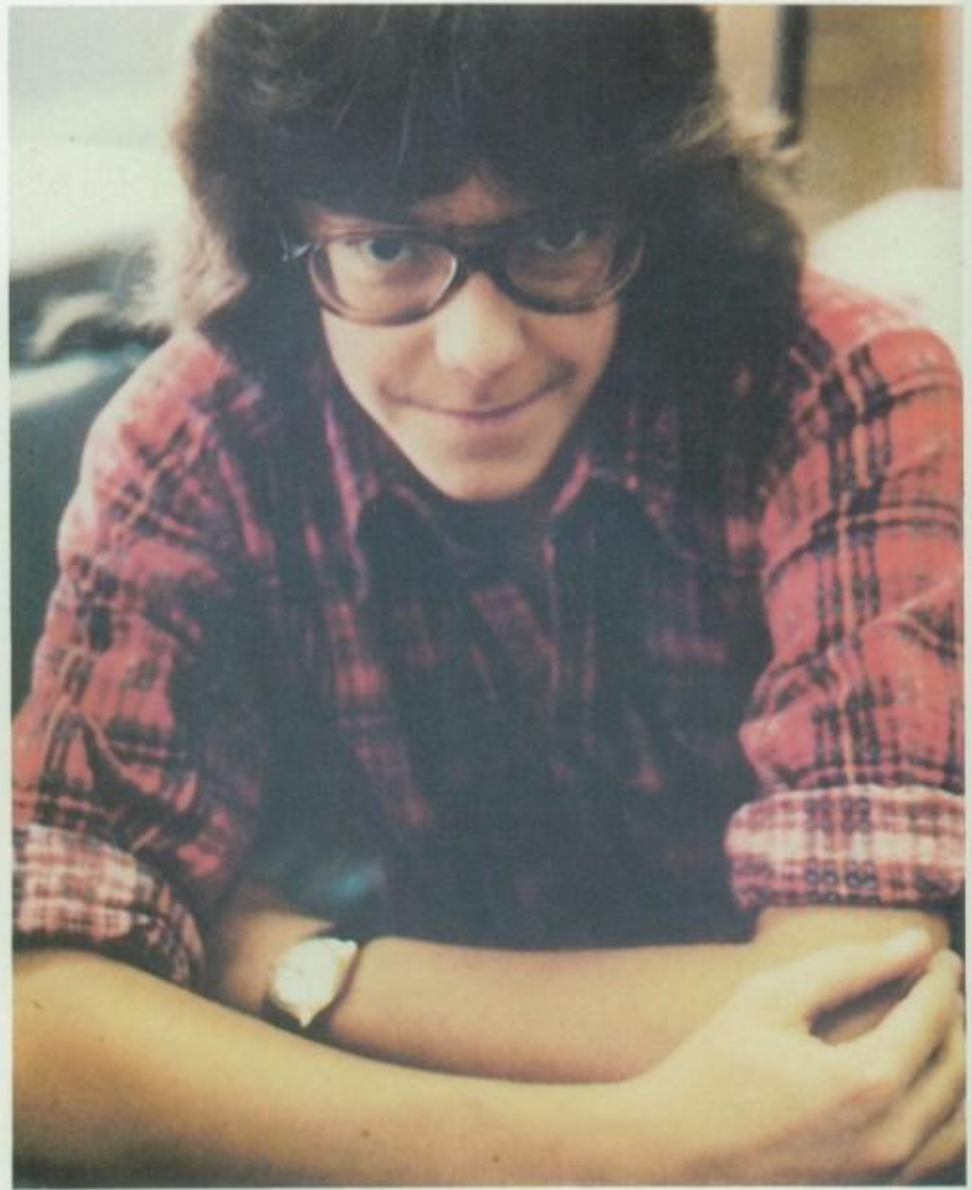

This year we have students from four corners of the globe. Mirja Alve from Finland is hosted by the Hertz family; Alison MacKay from New Zealand is staying with the Rohrs; Takao Kawaguchi from Japan enjoys American life with the Hakes; Andres Hidalgo from Columbia resides with the Enders family. All of the Exchange Students have enjoyed many activities with the BEST Club. Their visit here has benefited our student body in that we have learned to appreciate cultures other than our own more fully. Back Row: Mirja and Andres Front Row: Takao and Alison

The weekend of October 24th and 25th will be remembered by all as a very festive occasion. At the Homecoming game, Colleen Clement was crowned this year's Homecoming Queen. The following evening the queen, her court, and the students alike danced to the music of Gypsy Wind. In short, the weekend was a huge success and pleasurable time.

Sr. Class Play

Despite obstacles encountered with all plays, the senior class production of "The Brown Pelican" was a success. The audience enjoyed the abstract play, and a large percentage of students turned out both nights.

The cast, which included lions, tigers, and kangaroos, also had the rare ability to hold the attention of freshmen and sophomores throughout an entire assembly. "The Brown Pelican" was made possible only through the patient help of Mrs. Juditz and Mr. Dietz, and the hard work and dedication of the stage crew.

This year's White Christmas Formal will be an event long to be remembered. The dance, held December 29 at the Marriott Inn, had a new twist added this year—a buffet-style dinner.

Festivities for the evening were led by Mr. Witmer, followed by the crowning of this year's queen, Leigh Vanderzee.

The queen, her court, and couples danced to the popular Joe Hojak Quartet.

UNDERCLASSMEN LOG

Nikki,

You are a fantastic person! I'm so glad I got to know you better this year. Have a great summer - I'll see you a lot at practice and at ... CAMP!!! It'll be really fun! Good Luck in all you do.

Love,

Dianne

We are composed of freshmen, sophomores, and juniors, striving to become seniors and loving every minute of it. We left our secure middle school crowd, and now we are meeting new friends all the time. We could never have been convinced in the beginning that we'd learn so much about ourselves and others, or that we'd enjoy growing up this much. We're the classes of '82, '83, and '84. We feel that we are the best and maybe, just maybe, we are.

Nikki,

To a super great, fantastic, wonderful, person! If I didn't get to see you at least once a week I think I would cry. I'm so glad you made it for cheerleading I can hardly wait to start. Have a great summer. Love ya lots,

Love,

Jane

 Well, what can I say, you've been a great friend to me.
 Your sweet! Remember all the great times we've had in your one year in Band & especially VF, like Hayrides, baking bread in the church & volleyball tournaments And remember all the times we've had just being neighbors! There are so many it's hard to keep track of them! I want to thank you for being there if I didn't find a date for the prom. It made me feel really great to know I have a good friend in you! So it you ever need a date to your prom let me know I'll be glad to take you. You^{are} have so much going for you that I doubt you'll ever call on me, But I'll be there in case. Come see me at ship. & I'm sure we'll keep in touch! (we better)
 All my love
 Dave

P.S. Good luck with cheerleading, you make a super cheerleader. I'll come see you sometime.
 love
 Dave

 We were organized, and we got things done, but what stands out in our minds most is the fun we've had, the places we've been, the sights we've seen, not to mention the organized mischief we've "accomplished." We've learned by our accomplishments as well as from our disappointments. We've grown from our experiences, learned responsibility to ourselves, and acquired pleasurable memories that are ours to keep for a lifetime.

Nikki
 To a really nice girl who acts a little bit crazy
 sometimes, but don't worry I guess we all do now and then. Remember all the fun times we had in Dandy Don's class, like when you broke the screen, I hope you will be in more of my classes next year. Your really nice, and if you start the way friend. I know I'll see you over the summer but, just be in case I don't take core and have fun but good!

Ted

Nikki,
 To a real crazy, pretty, good friend. I'm really glad we got to know each other better this year.
 I hope as the years of graduation get closer our friendship will too! May you always have the best of luck with everything!
 See you over the summer.
 Love,
 Laura

SPORTS LOG

Often the goal is nearer than
It seems to a faint and faltering man
Often the struggler has given up
When he might have captured the victor's cup
And he learned too late, when he won
How close he was to the goal he'd run

Success is failure turned inside out
The silver tint of the clouds of doubt
And you never can tell how close you are
It may be near when it seems so far
So stick to the fight when you're tired
It's when things seem worst that you'll find the reward

Don't Quit

When things go wrong, as they sometimes will,
When the road you're trudging seems all up hill,
When the funds are low and the debts are high,
And you want to smile, but you have to sigh,
When care is pressing you down a bit,
Rest, if you must but don't you quit.

Life is queer with its twists and turns,
As everyone of us sometimes learns,
And many a failure turns about
When he might have won had he stuck it out;
Don't give up, though the pace seems slow—
You might succeed with another blow.

Often the goal is nearer than
It seems to a faint and faltering man,
Often the struggler has given up
When he might have captured the victor's cup,
And he learned too late, when the night slipped down,
How close he was to the golden crown.

Success is failure turned inside out—
The silver tint of the clouds of doubt—
And you never can tell how close you are,
It may be near when it seems afar;
So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit—
It's when things seem worse that you mustn't quit.

Football '80

The spectators who gathered at West Shore Stadium in the fall of 1980 could always expect an exciting game. The seniors proved to be the driving force behind an experienced squad. Under Coach Craig's leadership, the gridders pounded out a 9-1 season. Winding up the season with a hard fought 21-20 victory over previously undefeated Nazareth, the Colts proved what many fans already know about Cedar Cliff Football . . . THE COLTS ARE GREAT!

"Better than ever, as a result of hard work and dedication to the program," is the way veteran coach Doris Straw described this unique field hockey team that brought Cedar Cliff its seventh South Central League championship. This team went on to be one of the top in District III, and for the first time in Cedar Cliff history, competed in the state tournament.

The team was capably led by captains Diane Triano, who set a new school career scoring record of 47 goals, and Robin Zimmerman, who as goalie, tied the record of 11 shutout games in a season. The season's success can be attributed to the Colt's superior defense and aggressive offense. As one departing senior stated, "For the fall of 1980, field hockey was our life."

T e n n i s

The 1980 tennis squad finished with a successful season this year, due to team work and the experienced coaching of Miss Oldham. Three of this year's players qualified for district matches. Lynda Kirschbaum and Barb Knisely participated as singles, while Jill Kreider and Lynda Kirschbaum teamed up for doubles play. Having only one senior starter, the team will return with hopes of another good season.

All seven South Central League teams met at each match during the season. The 1980 squad finished in second place, only two points behind Chambersburg. Tom Simpson led the team with a 78 average and entered district play, along with teammates, Brad Albright, Jeff Fickinger and Drew Kelly. Five of this year's six starters were seniors, so the team will look to its underclassmen for strength next year.

Nikki,
 To a very, very beautiful but odd girl that I had the obvious pleasure of meeting and your sophomore year. Remember Bio class and how you always got me in trouble, also remember wrestling season with all the from times and going to Hershey for states in 10 minutes. You've truly made this year worth while to me. I hope it was to you. Your greatest friend I could possibly have the opposite sex from the other sex.

Wrestling

A good word to describe this year's wrestling squad was "experienced." With several returning lettermen and the leadership of Coach
 Craig and captains John Aumiller, Jim Kautz and Rob Rapsey, the Colts produced another winning season. Outstanding individual efforts were put forth repeatedly. The Junior Varsity and Freshmen squads also displayed their skillful ability when they stepped on the mats.
 There is no doubt that every C.C. wrestling fan received his share of excitement this year.

Hope you will always remember me as I will always remember you. I hope we become better friends as the years go on You'll have to come see me over the summer as I will have to see you. Take Care ya here. I love ya, Love John

Boys' Basketball

The boys' basketball team had to deal with many factors this year which led to their unfortunate season. The lack of a well-rounded program being established in the middle schools, and the lack of experience within the squad were only two of the contributing elements. The roundballers had their shining moments, though, with impressive wins over Middletown, Central Dauphin East, and Chambersburg. Throughout the season, Cedar Cliff placed two players, Terry Sutton and John Fickinger, on the area's leading scorers' list. They may not have been the best basketball team to pass through C.C., but the 1980-1981 squad had just as much spirit, determination, and will as any other team in the league.

Girls'

B a s k e t b a l l

Although the girls' basketball team had a slow start, they pulled it together and improved their playing ability through each game. Under the new direction of Coach Mary Jane Binney, the girls gave totally of themselves in every game. Leading the squad were seniors Margie Harr, Leslie Heil, Janice Johnston, Annie Natale, Lorraine Ross, and junior Beth McCormick. Determination was the key to this year's team.

Gymnastics

The gymnastic team, under the direction of captains Lynne Murdoch and Barrie Bucher, led the team into a challenging year. Barrie Bucher, Lynne Murdoch, and Amy Ritter qualified for the Tri-County meet, held at Cumberland Valley High School. Lynne Murdoch, the team's star performer, was severely injured at a previous meet and could not participate. With the whole team returning, however, the 1981-1982 season looks to be more successful.

With captains Vince Mitchell, Pete Martin, Sharon and Sue Daugherty leading the way, the swimming and diving teams splashed into their best season in three years. Their outstanding record was achieved after many hours were put in at Y.M.C.A. practices, directed by Coach Judy Hawthorn.

The successful season was highlighted when Glenn Gifford, Steve Kellsall, and Dave and Mark Hickoff went to district competition in the 400 yard free relay, as well as placing in other individual events. As the season came to a close, all members could reflect on a successful season.

Cheerleaders

ROW ONE: Missy Capuano, Jenny Basila, Jeanne Kutz, Linda Sweigert, Tamara Thierfelder, Nanci Ikeda, Michelle Thierfelder, ROW TWO: Beth Kazor, Jamie Rohrer, Sue Thomas, Terri Moser, Jenny Eaton

The cheerleaders' "season" began with summer practices beginning in July. In early August, the three squads attended Pocono Sports Camp to prepare for the tough year ahead. While there, the girls received various awards, which included the Spirit Stick and the honor of being voted "Most Spirited Squad." Both the J.V. and the Varsity Squads were chosen to compete for the "Squad of Excellence" award, and eventually Cedar Cliff's Varsity Squad proceeded to capture the award.

However, camp was just the beginning. Besides cheering, they also planned pep rallies, decorated the halls, and painted the windows.

The 1980-1981 cheerleaders were a unique group. Not only did the girls work together as a team; they worked together as friends.

ROW ONE: Jeanne Kutz ROW TWO: Sue Thomas, Tamara Thierfelder ROW THREE: Jenny Basila, Linda Sweigert, Nanci Ikeda, Michelle Thierfelder

SENIOR LOG

Cedar Cliff High School

This Certifies that has satisfactorily completed the Course of Study prescribed for this High School by the Board of School Directors and is therefore awarded this

Diploma

Given at Camp Hill, Pennsylvania, June, 1981

So we're done. Well, not really. For some of us, there's a little something called college to get out of the way first. For others, there awaits the working world. For all, awaits the same—the challenge of succeeding.

Graduating is kind of funny when we think about it. For eighteen years, especially the last four at Cedar Cliff, we've lived a carefree and sheltered life. Some of the problems we've faced here were never more involved than deciding whom we should ask to the prom. Then, with the subtlety of a barrelling freight train, all that play round-like peace came to an end. Our little euphoric world came crashing down on our adolescent heads. We found ourselves with only one world left in which to live—the real one. For the first time in our lives we stand poised to open all of our own doors and to live our own lives. What caused this revolution unparalleled in our still young lives? Society handed us a ticket. Sure it looked like a diploma—but in actuality it was passage into our futures. So, rather than brood over the departure of our friends, we should stand ever strong at this crossroad time in our lives. It is with pronounced honesty that we can now say we're ready to step out in the world, for bound in our right hand's passionate grip will be our ticket to ride.

ROUGH LAYOUT

COPY

And now the year is coming to a close. We have tried to express our feelings about the year and condense them into this yearbook. It was our goal to produce a yearbook that everyone would enjoy. It took a lot of hard work, but it has paid off in a yearbook we are proud of. Someday, we hope that you will take it off the shelf, wipe the dust off, and reminisce. Most of all, we hope that you will smile.

Without the support of many area businesses, it would have been almost impossible to bring this book to you. With gratitude, we thank them for their continuing service to our community.

NOTE: Colored illustrations, calling cards, letterheads, telephone directory art and newspaper clippings are not acceptable.

Nikki,

It's hard to believe I'm almost through my first year. Can you remember when we were really little running around each others yards in the sandbox makin' little castles. I miss those. Remember you, me, & Paula. I could name a lot! We've been through so much. The slumber parties, "Rock the Horse" & what sat! You've been one heck of a sister. You were always there when I needed a friend. I hope I helped you just as much. There is no way I could ever forget you & the memories. You're almost a junior ^{oops!!} It's going too fast. The best of luck to you always.

Love ya.

Trish

CEDAR LOG

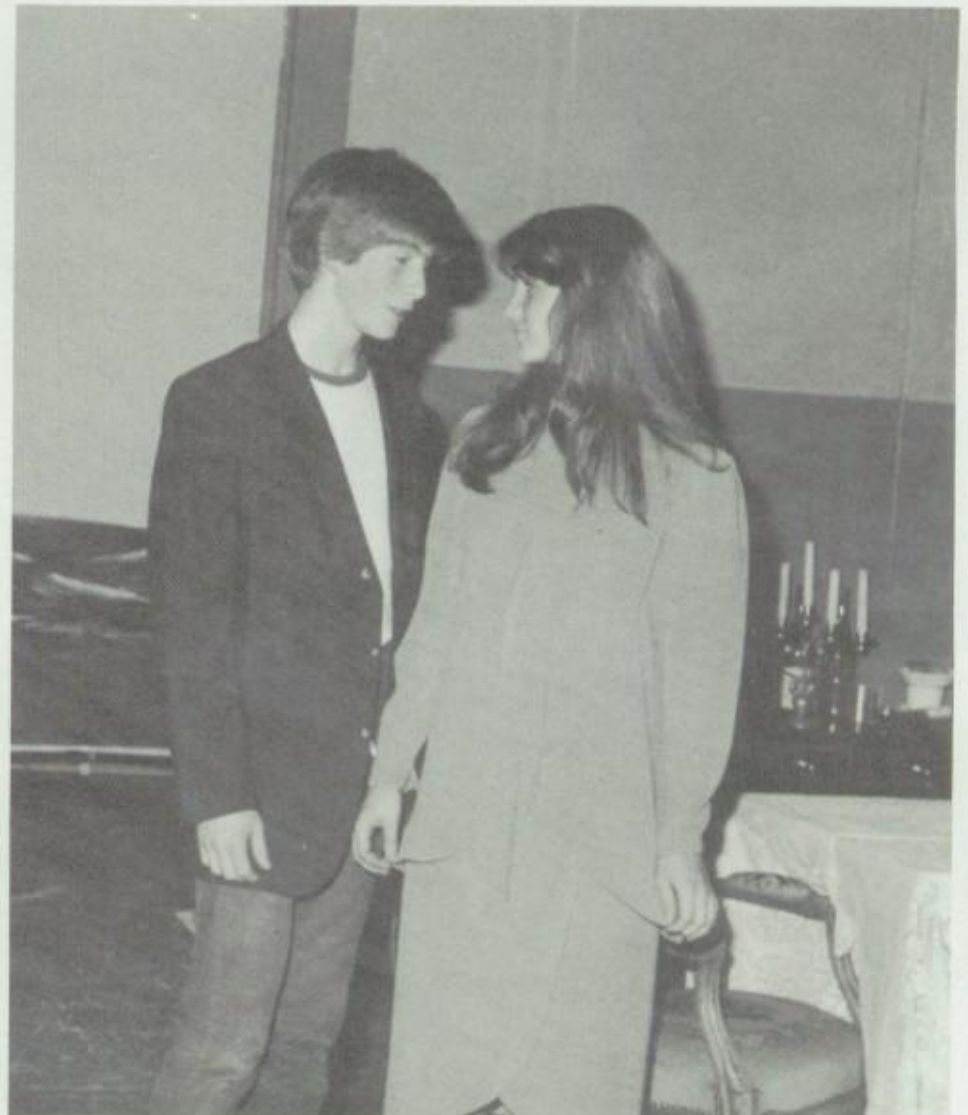

1981

Arsenic And Old Lace

Joseph Kesselring's Arsenic and Old Lace, a comical mystery about two old ladies and their gentlemen callers, was presented by the junior class on May 1 and 2 in the Cedar Cliff auditorium. The play was directed by Mrs. Lillian M. Juditz.

The two old ladies were portrayed by Cindy Miller and Jennie Gonglewski. Supporting co-stars were Doug Rickenbach, Jill Kreider and Jill Zeigler. Other parts were played by Takao Kawaguchi, Kirk Hitesman, Mark Edwards, and sophomores Jonathan Phelps, Ron Leik, Kevin Finegan, Chris Edwards and Scott Atkinson.

Many problems faced the cast, but the play was a success thanks to the efforts put forth by the student director Susan Britt.

Children's Theater

Take a group of high school students, put them back in elementary school, and what do you get? A great time! Well, at least that's what the actors of Children's Theater thought.

The play featured was Puss in Boots, performed by Jennie Gonglewski and Margaret Gonglewski. Supporting actors were Johnathan Phelps, Kirk Hitesman, Bob Ball, Amelia Cone, Susan Matinchek, and Chris Edwards.

Repertory Theater

On March 28, the Repertory Theatre presented three one-act plays. The presentation included Objective Case, directed by Chris Edwards, The Hairy Falsetto, which Amelia Cone directed, and Mr. Flannery's Ocean directed by Bob Ball.

The participants of these plays achieved personal satisfaction in their performances. The plays were performed at various social functions within the community.

Competition Play

The curtain opened as talented Cliffers took the stage in competition. The play Mr. Flannery's Ocean, which was written by Lewis John Carlino, starred Chris Edwards and Jennie Gonglewski in lead roles, and was overseen by student director Bob Ball under the supervision of Mrs. Juditz.

Starting off in after-school competition, the cast and the crew then advanced to first place in district level competition. In May, they took the performance to the Pennsylvania State Drama Festival at the Bucks County Playhouse.

Anything Goes

The lights dimmed as students took the stage for three consecutive nights to bring the house down in a show-stopping operetta. Cole Porter's magical score Anything Goes was this year's outstanding production. Teaming up with pleasing results, Mr. Deitz and Mrs. Juditz made the show both a dramatic and musical success. Cast in the leading roles were talented students Jim Bach, Kristi Carlson, Cathy Click, Julie Flowers, Hugh Plautz, Scott Preun, Bob Roth, and Cyndi Shiley. The leads were backed by the delightful chorus harmonies, and a dance troupe added spice to the performance. For those three nights in March, anything went for a most memorable operetta.

After four years of being the underdog, this year's varsity volleyball team demonstrated its skill and excellence through a series of demanding matches. The first year of system play proved to be a success, and volleyball became a very intense and exciting game to watch as well as play. Finishing in second place in the South Central League was an honor well earned.

Participating in districts, the Colts demonstrated excellence once more by defeating several seeded York teams and finishing in third place.

Steve Donatucci was in a class by himself when he pole vaulted to 5th place at the state meet.

SOFTBALL

The girls' softball team competed in a very tight league this year, and under the leadership of coach Howell and captains Brenda Heisey, Beth McCormick, and Merry Zang, improved in every game. Leading the team in hitting were Brenda Heisey, Sue Kocher, and Linda Myers, while Patti Knadler and Beth McCormick brought up a tough defense. The team anxiously awaits next season, and with the loss of only one starter will surely gain more success.

Baseball

Under the disadvantage of postponed games which forced the Colts to play three or four games a week, this year's squad still fared well. The 1981 team posted a 9-8 record. Seniors Dave MacIvor and Jeff Marshall headed the pitching staff while Mike Clouser, John Murphy, Matt Redshaw, and Sean Sanderson swung the hot sticks. With a few breaks, several of the one-run games could have easily made the Colts victorious.

Junior Senior Prom

Saturday, May 23, marked an occasion that will long be remembered by all who attended the 1981 Junior-Senior Prom. The evening began with an inviting buffet in the spacious Embers dining room. After dinner, the couples danced to the up-beat music of the popular Joe Hojak Quartet. Although the Prom drew to a close at 11:00 p.m., prom night festivities lasted well into the morning.

This year's 1981 Baccalaureate service was especially meaningful to the graduating class, since the students took part in every facet of the program.

The Mixed Choir, composed mostly of seniors, was under the direction of Mr. Dietz and had a major part in the service.

Each of the students nominated to speak by either the senior class or the faculty was given a part in the service. Pastor Les Heilman, father of a graduating student, delivered the invocation.

This year's Baccalaureate service was an inspiring and memorable part of the graduation activities.

Mr. Bruce Smith, former teacher of English at Cedar Cliff, now a member of the Pennsylvania House of Representatives, addresses the final gathering of the Class of 1981, which took place on a beautiful spring evening.

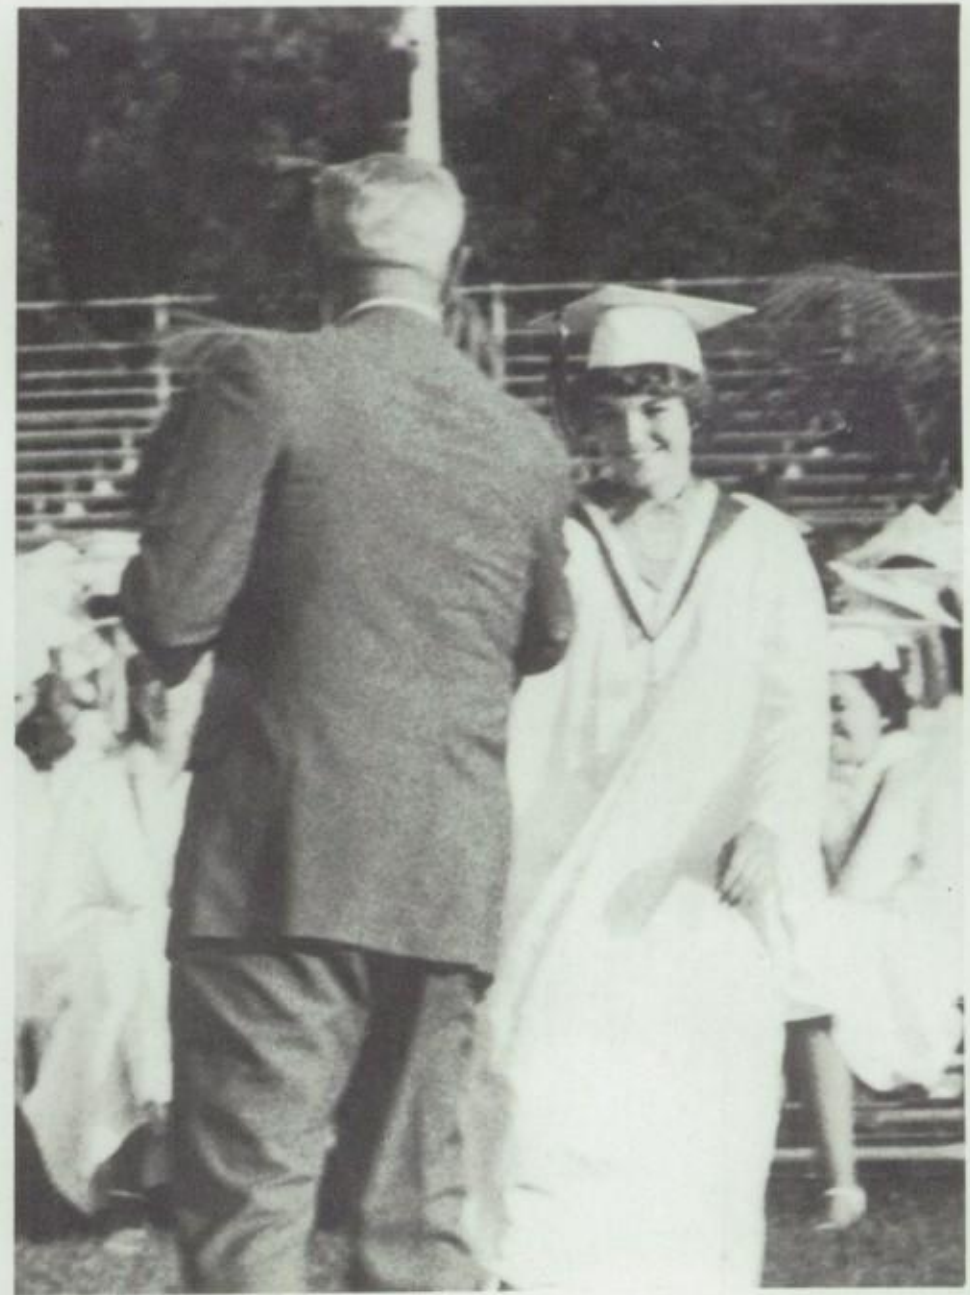

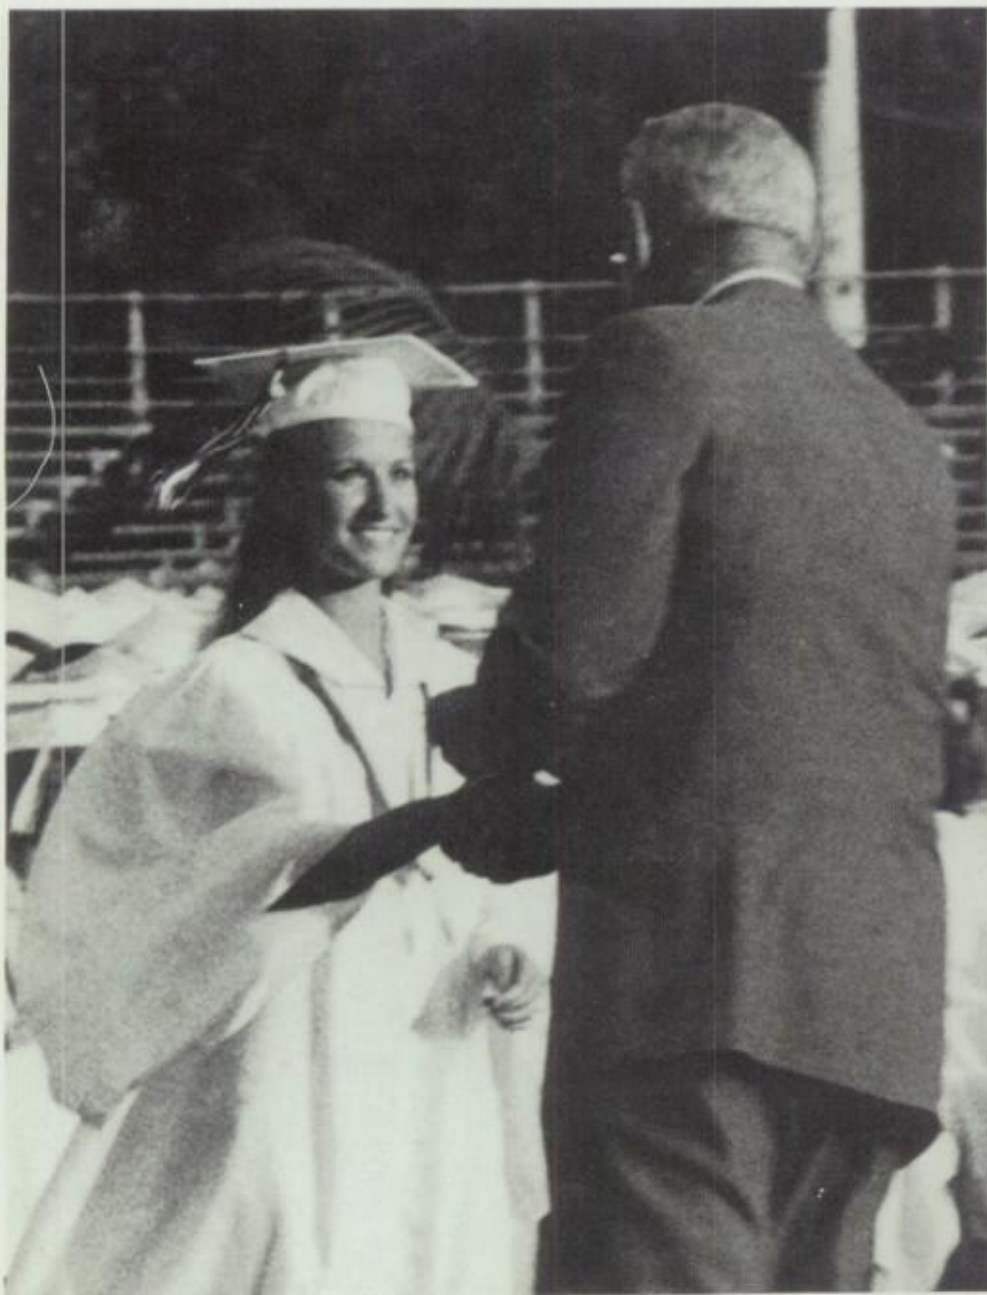

This year's Commencement theme was "Challenge to Achieve Success." The speeches given by student speaker Rick Brown and faculty speaker Joe Tarsavage made the graduating seniors realize the truth of their class theme:

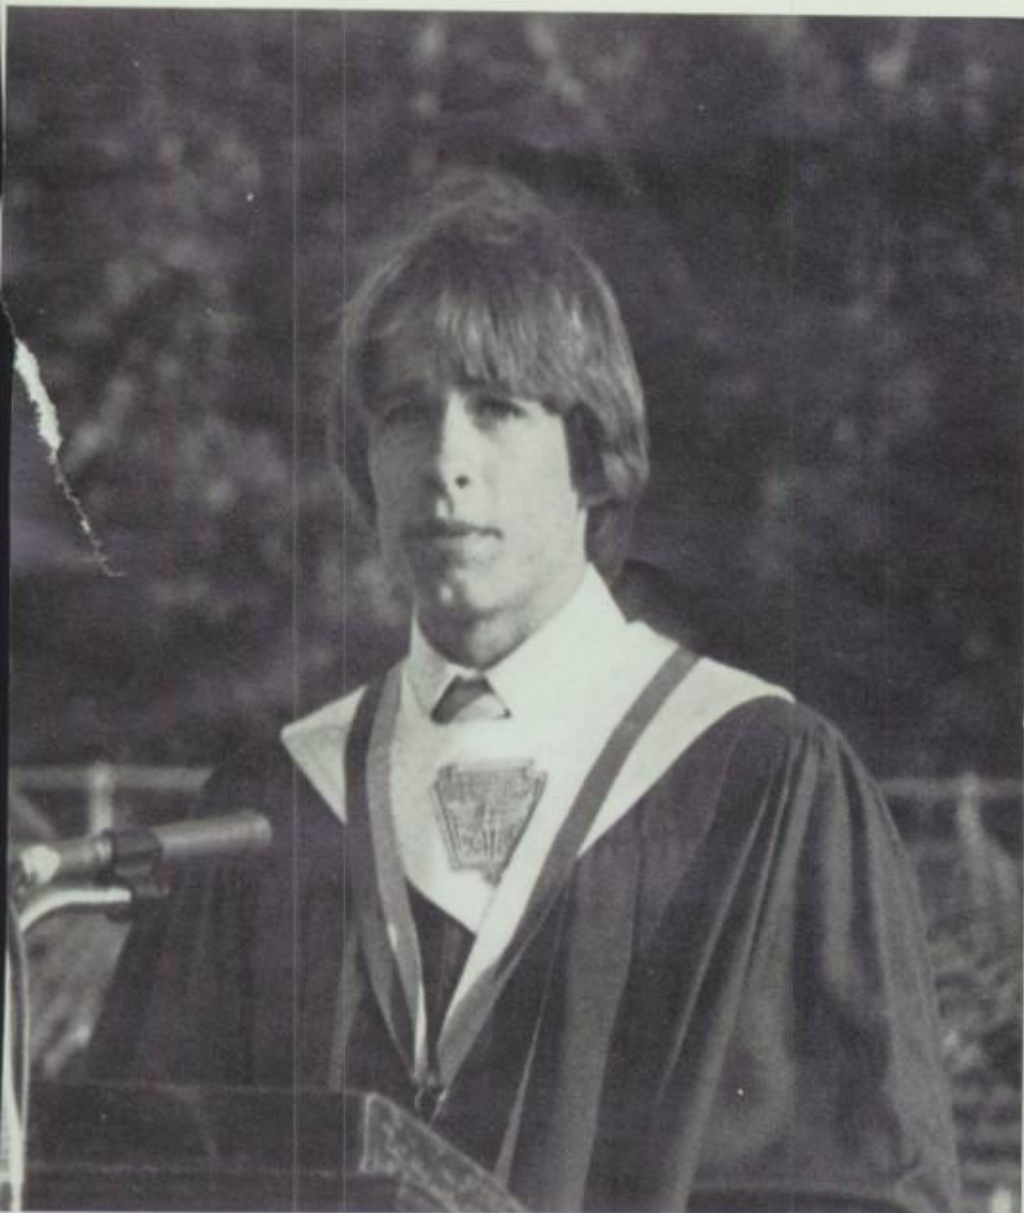

*What lies before us
And what lies behind us
Are tiny matters
Compared to what lies within us.*

FACULTY SPEAKER

Joe Tarsavage

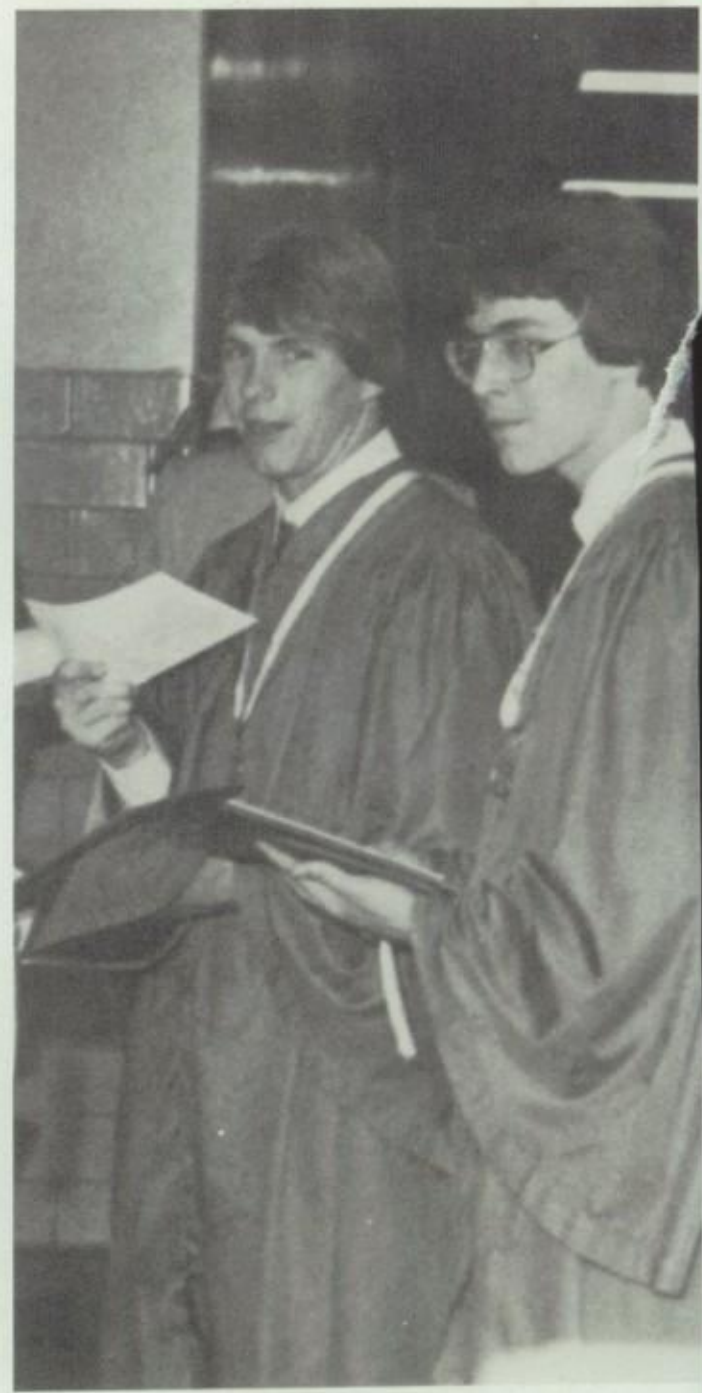

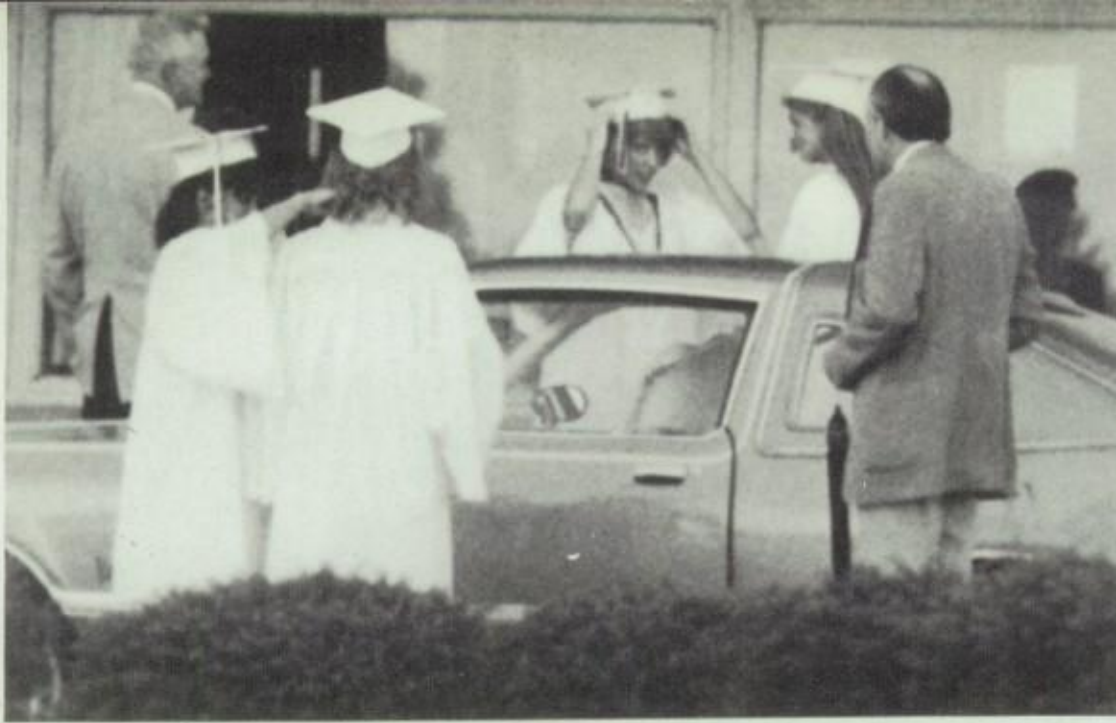

"We now can be leaders The price we will pay may be great, but well worth the effort. Perhaps years from now, others may look at our accomplishments and, more importantly, our diligence, and they may say that they will be proud to follow in the footsteps of the class of 1981."

STUDENT SPEAKER

Rick Brown

"Pursue your dreams with vigor, follow your head with your heart. Accept those changes which must come, and be yourself until the end. And even though there is not a guarantee for success, if you set your course toward the sun of a new day, you will surely be leaving all your shadows behind."

Vo'
NIK,

This is just another note in the collection of the many notes you've gotten from me, but this one you can't get rid of... or give to me. Anyway, like you said, what can words say. I can only say Thanks. Thanks for being a hell of a friend. I really needed your help and thank you for it. You've opened my eyes and now I see (Wow!! Amazing Grace!!) ... No, seriously, I want you to know that I'll never forget you. I'll always be ^(here) there when you need me, or somebody. Okay?

And another ^{thing} chick!!! The beans are September's light-shade... Got that settled?!! And the grass isn't out until the sun smiles in green carpet. Okay?? 400° and 1 degree.

So, anyway. Thank you. again, I can never thank you enough. (But I'll stop now... for a while)
Take care of yourself and have a great/safe.

summer.

Love,

Tom Sanford
